

*Bridging the Gap
for San Francisco Youth in Crisis*

cityYouthnow

2012 Annual Report

FOR OVER HALF A CENTURY, OUR MISSION HAS REMAINED CONSTANT —

City Youth Now supports youth in the San Francisco foster care and juvenile justice systems by providing funds for services and programs that promote stability and personal growth.

City Youth Now, originally founded in 1950 as the Volunteer Auxiliary of the Youth Guidance Center, is the first non-profit organization of its kind in the history of the United States' juvenile court system. For over 60 years, City Youth Now has been diligently working behind the scenes to address the unique needs of children and youth under the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Juvenile Court System. Probation officers, social workers, attorneys, and others come to us daily with requests for youth under their supervision. These requests are for many different opportunities and are based upon the individual needs of the youth in the system. City Youth Now works to ensure that youth in the juvenile court system have the same positive youth development opportunities as other children to grow into mature and successful adults. We recognize that all children deserve a chance at a better future. In the life of a child, it is often the small things, beyond the basic necessities, that are monumental to growth and development and pave the way for youth to transition into successful adults.

The realities youth in the system face intensify every decade. All of the youth we serve come from low-income families, often with histories of child abuse and neglect, gun violence, incarceration, and/or substance abuse. They range in age from newborn to 18 years old, sometimes older for those youth who have recently emancipated from foster care. While they come from different neighborhoods in San Francisco, they have in common that they have each endured more than their share of trauma and hardship. Our hope is that by providing them with new opportunities and enriched experiences, they will have a better chance of breaking out of the cycle of crime and violence that entraps so many of their peers and adult community members.

CITY YOUTH NOW BRIDGES THE GAP FOR SAN FRANCISCO YOUTH IN CRISIS.

Dear Friends,

Since 1950, City Youth Now has been dedicated to serving San Francisco's abused, neglected, and forgotten children. The impact of generations of poverty, violence, crime, and drug use have taken their toll on our city and one can only imagine the impact it has had on the children served by City Youth Now. Budget cutbacks have caused more social workers, probation officers, CASAs, attorneys, and youth advocates to turn to City Youth Now to provide support for clothing, academic assistance, health and wellness support, summer camperships, personal development opportunities, and job support for youth under their supervision.

In 2012, City Youth Now made the personal health and development of San Francisco kids, our priority. Through generous contributions by individual donors we have been able to expand our services to provide more funding for our existing programs. And, through collaborations and community awareness we have been able to launch new programs at the Juvenile Justice Center. We also re-launched our website to expand our capacity to receive requests, receive donations, and increase awareness of our services.

We know that our success as an agency is dependent on individual donors and foundations who invest in the future of San Francisco's forgotten children by providing them with the opportunity to excel in school, experience new opportunities, transition successfully to adulthood, and/or snuggle a teddy bear during a traumatic time.

In these pages, we hope to provide you with a glimpse of the programs and service available at City Youth Now. Now, more than ever we must remember that it takes a village to raise a child.

Thank you for helping us bridge the gap for youth in crisis.

Best Regards,

Paul McIntyre
President, Board of Directors

Board of Directors

Officers

Paul McIntyre

Adriene Roche

Kevin Sullivan

Linda Jackson

Members

David Bloom

Leigh Davenport-deBoer

Brendan Finley

Courtney Horn

Keith Nesbitt

Jen Thompson

Honorary Members

Greg Suhr

Kathleen Kelly

Mark Farrell

Highlights and Financials

EMPLOYMENT & INDEPENDENT LIVING

201 youth were provided paid internships, skill-building and helping them prepare for employment
75 transitioning teens were provided aid so that they could live independently

EDUCATION & LITERACY

4 college-bound students were awarded academic scholarships
489 youth were provided academic support including tutoring, textbooks, and testing fees
505 detained juveniles were exposed to authors, theater productions, and academic programming
166 high school students were provided cap & gown sets, graduation gifts, backpacks, and alarm clocks
710 youth were provided library services and other literacy programming

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT & HEALTH

43 kids received scholarships to attend summer camp
31 youth pursued art and music classes, life skills workshops, and learned healthier coping skills
9 young people were provided supplemental medical and dental assistance
67 youth participated in sports leagues and other recreational classes

SOCIAL SERVICES, SAFETY, AND CRITICAL NEEDS

450 children removed from their homes were provided an emergency essentials kit
640 kids received a holiday gift, perhaps their only one, from City Youth Now
42 teens participated in the WIMP program to teach minors about the dangers of weapons

2012 Revenue

2012 Expenses

Expenditures by Mandates

Internship Program

City Youth Now's Internship Program is designed to prepare youth for employment by introducing participants to typical work environments, allowing youth to gain the self-confidence, career awareness, financial literacy, and the interpersonal skills needed to succeed in the long term. The Internship Program is designed with maximum flexibility so that youth and probation officers are able to find appropriate placements. City Youth Now pays interns a limited stipend during their internship with a local business or community organization. The internship is an intensive 3-step program consisting of a total of 110 hours of work experience. At the end of the program, the youth are required to submit a resume, a cover letter, a letter of recommendation from their supervisor, and to participate in a mock interview at our office. City Youth Now is committed to assisting youth in making a successful transition to healthy adulthood and economic independence.

Fabian entered the youth probation system at the age of 17. He will be attending culinary school this spring and expects to complete his training by the end of the year.

IN 2012, 201 YOUTH WERE PROVIDED PAID INTERNSHIPS.

Independent Living Skills

City Youth Now provides support for the youth emancipating or aging out from the foster care system in San Francisco. This support includes small deposits on apartments, furniture, kitchen supplies, transportation, support for job training programs, and much more.

IN 2012, 75 TRANSITIONING TEENS WERE PROVIDED AID SO THAT THEY COULD LIVE INDEPENDENTLY.

"I was scared and excited when I turned eighteen. I was happy to finally be on my own, but I was nervous because I had no funds or any kind of support. But my social worker and City Youth Now helped me out and now I have a place to call home."

Wilson, Age 19, Former Foster Youth

Tutoring, Testing, & Textbooks

CYN provides youth with academic assistance to ensure they graduate from high school or pass the equivalence exam. CYN provides one-on-one tutors for single subjects and GED tutoring. In addition, we fund college tours and provide financial assistance in purchasing textbooks, supplies, and college registration fees.

IN 2012, 489 YOUTH WERE PROVIDED ACADEMIC SUPPORT INCLUDING TUTORING, TEXTBOOKS, AND TESTING FEES.

Special Programs at Juvenile Hall

In partnership with the San Francisco Juvenile Justice Center, CYN sponsors programs to expose incarcerated youth to new worlds and opportunities they otherwise would not see. These programs include plays, yoga, food and nutrition courses, dance and movement classes, and visits from Bay Area authors who share inspiring stories, to name a few.

IN 2012, 505 DETAINED JUVENILES WERE EXPOSED TO AUTHORS, THEATER PRODUCTIONS, AND ACADEMIC PROGRAMMING.

Graduation Expenses / Recognition

We award up to $300 per youth per year to support high school seniors in the foster care and juvenile probation systems who have successfully completed the steps to graduate high school. These funds pay for expenses and activities (cap, gown, yearbook, prom, photos, etc.) and for two large group graduation ceremonies and graduation gifts for foster and probation youth.

IN 2012, 166 HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS WERE PROVIDED CAP & GOWN SETS, GRADUATION GIFTS, BACKPACKS, AND ALARM CLOCKS.

Library Services

In 1996, City Youth Now partnered with the San Francisco Public Library to bring a library facility to the Juvenile Justice Center. There are now over 4,000 books in the collection and the librarian spends time each week with the youth on the individual units.

IN 2012, 710 YOUTH WERE PROVIDED LIBRARY SERVICES AND OTHER LITERACY PROGRAMMING.

+ Arts and Music

City Youth Now funds activities and programs which promote development of healthier coping mechanisms and particular life skills, as well as to nurture artistic endeavors. Youth are provided opportunities to participate in extra-curricular activities such as learning how to sing or play a musical instrument.

IN 2012, 31 YOUTH PURSUED ART AND MUSIC CLASSES, LIFE SKILLS WORKSHOPS, AND LEARNED HEALTHIER COPING SKILLS.

+ Recreation Classes & Equipment

City Youth Now serves youth from lower income families that are particularly susceptible to rising obesity levels. Participation in sports exposes youth to positive adult role models in their coaches and instructors, and fosters a sense of teamwork and cooperation.

IN 2012, 67 YOUTH PARTICIPATED IN SPORTS LEAGUES AND OTHER RECREATIONAL CLASSES.

+ Camperships

Approximately 2/3 of the youth population served by City Youth Now will become entangled with drugs, teen pregnancy, violence, and drop out of school. Summer camps focus on building self esteem, social skills, relationships with adult mentors, self-confidence, perseverance, and independence.

IN 2012, 43 KIDS RECEIVED SCHOLARSHIPS TO ATTEND SUMMER CAMP.

+ Medial and Dental Needs

Children seldom enter foster care with a comprehensive medical history intact. City Youth Now helps with medical and dental expenses that cannot be provided by any other funding source.

IN 2012, 9 YOUNG PEOPLE WERE PROVIDED SUPPLEMENTAL MEDICAL AND DENTAL ASSISTANCE.

♥ Project K.E.E.P. - Kids Emergency Essentials Packs

Every year, hundreds of children in San Francisco are removed from their homes due to child abuse or neglect. CYN provides these children with a backpack including: a blanket; a toiletry kit; crayons or colored pencils; a notebook, drawing paper and pens; and a stuffed animal which can be a comfort during this frightening time.

IN 2012, 450 CHILDREN REMOVED FROM THEIR HOMES WERE PROVIDED AN EMERGENCY ESSENTIALS KIT.

♥ Emergency Clothing

Clothing is not only a necessity for a growing child, but is also tied to issues of self-esteem and self-worth. City Youth Now supports these children by providing them with emergency clothing when they are removed from their homes and taken to the Child Protection Shelter, or moved into a new home placement. We also provide emergency clothing to youth being released from juvenile hall with nothing but the clothes they were detained in, which often no longer fit them properly. Budget cuts have led to a drastic reduction in stipends. As a result, City Youth Now has stepped in to provide clothing vouchers to youth as they exit the Juvenile Justice Center, change group homes or foster placements, or outgrow their clothing.

♥ The Anne Devincenzi Dito Holiday Gift Program

The Holiday Gift Program is City Youth Now's oldest program. Since 1950, we have provided thousands of holiday gifts to abused, neglected, and troubled children in the San Francisco Juvenile Court System.

IN 2012, 640 KIDS RECEIVED A HOLIDAY GIFT, PERHAPS THEIR ONLY ONE, FROM CITY YOUTH NOW.

Volunteer Involvement

City Youth Now is dependent on its volunteers. These dedicated people make a difference in the lives of San Francisco's neediest children by donating thousands of hours to our programs and services.

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks for their commitment and ongoing effort to ensure that every child in our community receives services that generates a sense of self-worth and dignity.

Community Support

City Youth Now relies primarily on donations, grants and corporate sponsorship and support. We are grateful to all of those who continue to support our efforts through their generous contributions.

We proudly recognize our financial supporters on our website at www.cityyouthnow.org

Demographics - Who Does CityYouthNow Reach?

Gender

Ethnicity

Age

